GENEVA, OR THE LOST BRIDE.

The spectacular performance which is to be presented at the Opera house Thursday night, February 8th, by 200 of Mayville's society folk promises to be an magnificent affair. The play is founded on the famous poem, "Under the Violette Bough," by Rodgers. Specialties of a pleasing and novel sort will take up the moments between acts. The performance will begin at 8:15 sharp, and no one will be seated during the first act. This scene is elaborate from a spectacular point of view, and it is the key to the entire story. All those attending will confer a favor upon every one present by being in their seats by 8:15. Mayville's best musical talent will be seen and heard on mass Thursday night, and the program from first to last will be bristling with novel specialties and happy surprises. Seats on sale at Nelson's. Procure your seats early.

The Democratic caucus at Columbus has decided to defeat the resolution for a Lexow investigation in Cincinnati.

The body of Sturley C. Armstrong, missing Cashier of the Washington National Bank, Pittsburgh, was found near Roanoke, Va., with a bullet hole through the head. He disappeared January 23, and his absence caused a run on the Bank. His accounts were absolutely correct, and the "run" did not hurt the Bank.

Rev. George H. Simmons, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, President of the Inter-state Savings Bank and the People's Savings Bank, and recently appointed manager of the Yates senatorial campaign in Peoria county, was found dead in bed at Peoria, Ill., yesterday morning, having suicided. He has been the subject of investigation at the hands of the State's Attorney, the two Banks and his congregation on the gravest charges.
